Dear Colleagues,

International Society for Translational Cancer Research (ISTCR) was formed in 2005 with the aim to bring both clinicians and scientists together to strengthen the fight against cancer. Since then, ISTCR has organized highly successful five conferences at various places in India, in addition to its various other academic activities. Continuing the traditions; we are glad to announce “6th International Translational Cancer Research Conference” from February 04-07, 2016 in Ahmedabad, India. The theme of the conference will revolve around “Prevention and Treatment of Cancer: Hypes and Hopes”. The conference will be held at Hotel Hyatt Regency, Ahmedabad, which is situated in the center of the city, close to “Gandhi Ashram and Sabarmati River Front” and has several other unique features making it the best conference venue.

The key feature of this international meeting is to discuss and explore translational opportunities of novel therapeutic strategies to combat cancer by active involvement of academicians, scientists and clinicians. Most importantly, this conference will make an attempt to bring together distinguished scientists around the globe and budding researchers to discuss and deliberate on the emerging trends and future prospects of prevention and treatment of cancer. We look forward to provide various interactive sessions for exchange of new knowledge and discussion on frontiers of cancer research. The organizers hope that there will be a fruitful volume on diverse disciplines of oncology through this conference which will go a long way in enriching the knowledge and stimulating young minds to develop interest in cancer.

Furthermore, national and international delegates will have an exciting indulgence to the rich culture, traditions and geographical beauty of Vibrant Gujarat, India.

On behalf of the organizing committee, it is our great pleasure and honor to invite you to participate in the 6th International Translational Cancer Research Conference to explore highly academic environment in stimulating Ahmedabad.
